- Encourage your child to read 30 minutes daily
- Participate in decisions about your child's education through parent meetings
- Be engaged in your child's education and ask for help from the school to help you assist your child his/her efforts at home.
- Emphasize the importance of "every day" math in your child's life.
- Attend parent events
- Provide feedback on our parent involvement activities
- Complete the annual needs assessment for our school
- Commitment to review and sign progress reports as well as return them

* Students – The school and your parents are confident that You will...

- Attend school every day ready to learn
- Write down your assignments
- Complete any homework given for the day.
- Read something of interest every day outside of school time.
- Deliver all notices and information you may receive at school to an adult in your home.
- Give maximum effort to your education at all times.
- Come to school each day with a positive attitude.

We hope you will join with us this year to provide the very best education for your son or daughter. Overwhelming evidence shows that when you are involved and engaged in the education of your child and give him/her the support necessary to make good decisions about progress made at school, he/she will be more successful, perform better on tests, and go on to higher education.
